

COMPLETE PLAN FOR INDIAN HOME FOUND

Rare Drawings Are Dug Up in Mississippi.

Washington.—The complete plan of a great Indian home has been discovered in a cotton field in Mississippi. The plan, which is the first of its kind, was discovered by a group of men working for the Mississippi State National Museum. Mr. Collins, who has just returned from Mississippi, is bringing a drawing of the house plan, said that this is the first discovery showing clearly how the prehistoric Indians of the southeast designed their buildings.

The house, which is in the frequent-plowed cotton field of Claude Pepper near Deasville, was recently excavated as an Indian site, when houses and postholes were dug up by two young men working for the Mississippi State National Museum. These men, Messrs. Chambers and James Ford, located Mr. Collins to work with them in excavating the site.

Pepper for Support.
The house plan shows three circles of post holes which were used for roof supports. Mr. Collins estimated that the entire house was 90 feet in diameter. Drawing the circles with a string, as the Indians probably did in the first place, the archeologists found that the circles were perfectly laid out. The circles were 30 feet apart and the three circles in shallow trenches and the posts formed a wall of the structure was very likely of wattle-work of reeds and mud.

One headless skeleton was found in this trench. The tribe of Indians which built the house is not yet known. It is possible that the house was one of the mound-building tribes, for several mounds lie above the house within half a mile of the round house.

Excavations may be continued, Mr. Collins stated.

Great Swedish Fair

Will Open Next May

Stockholm.—The Swedish fair, which is expected to be the biggest Stockholm exhibition from May to September, 1930, according to the Swedish press, is expected to be the most important of the world's exhibitions in the spring. In accordance with the plan, the fair will be held in the city of Stockholm, and will be an exhibition of art, crafts and home industries every attempt will be made to give the visitor a complete survey of what Sweden produces in these fields. The fair will be the best representation of Swedish technique in industrial and decorative art.

Will Ban Shooting of Big Game From Motors

London.—English sportsmen are determined to keep big game hunting sportsmen. The Earl of Onslow recently drew the attention of the house of lords to a practice of hunting big game by motor car in certain parts of Africa. Lord Passfield, secretary for the colonies, said that legislation was to be introduced in England to make the punishment for hunting from motor cars imprisonment and confiscation of the car and equipment.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—Boris Nammat, native of Jug-Slavia, is a minor nuisance because he over looked a small detail. Recently he applied to the immigration authorities for permission to enter his wife and child in this country. He told the authorities that he had been in the United States since 1913.

"How can you have a thirteen-month-old baby when you said you have been here since 1913?" he was asked. "That stamped him, so he admitted he had gone back to his native land, and was married there. He said he had trouble with the military law and was needed in coming back to America. He left his wife in Jug-Slavia."

Judge Alder fined the man $500 and said he would not be allowed to remain in America.

Naval Parley Getting Down to Business, Spain's Dictator Resigns.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

TOWARD THE end of the week, the delegates to the five-power naval conference in London spent another week mainly in private conversations designed to develop national programs, some rather ambitious, one pipe and some broken pottery. Some of the pottery is a red and white kind known as "Spanish" in the United States. The Spanish of the conference was usually quiet, but it is difficult to account for this use of it all the time, Mr. Collins said.

The Twenty-third Psalm:
The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: For Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou art my helper, and Thou art my deliverer. My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Beatitudes:
Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the lowly: for they shall be exalted. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and shall persecute you, and shall say against you falsely, for My sake. Rejoice, for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Lord's Prayer:
Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, as we forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
